BCT

Your Transition with BCT

Opportunity

BCT is a PRIME contractor and a leader in the small business space with nearly 20 years of experience supporting various customers across the defense and intelligence space.

Our SkillBridge fellows get many advantages in choosing the BCT back office for your transition. In addition to learning from all functional areas of business on this side of the industry, you will get access to other veterans in leadership, and keen mentorship and support that will propel your career supporting mission on this side of the aisle.

Learn about government contracting in a truly low-threat, friendly, and helpful environment!
